

SELCUK UNIVERSITY FOLK DANCE SOCIETY

Selcuk University Folk Dance Society (SÜHOT), which was established in 2001 affiliated to the Directorate of Health, Culture and Sports, has a characteristic of being the largest university dance society with nearly 1,500 dancers. The society, which became the World's Number One in 40th 'International Poland Zakopane' Folk Dances Competition organized in Poland in 2008, and won the award 'The Most Amazing Performance', the most prestigious award of the organization in 'World Cultures Folk Dance Festival' which 20 countries from 4 continents participated in and was organized in Thailand in 2011. SÜHOT, representing Selcuk University at home and abroad successfully based on the rich culture of Anatolia, keeps on working by setting higher goals with each passing year, with 96 shows in 14 countries and 210 performances in our country with 6,400 dancers.

